

Language Center News

Issue 3 March 2008

A message from the editor:

Welcome to the third issue of the language center news. The center has been open for around two months and goes from strength to strength. There is a full month of activities planned for March, with the highlight being the BULATS seminar on Wednesday 19th March. Highlights in April include English through Movies II, and English with the Bangkok Post. So...don't miss out...See you in the center soon...
